

HIGHLIGHTS OF THE PRESIDENT'S DAILY ACTIVITIES - Friday, September 18, 2015

- President Ellen Johnson Sirleaf, has arrived in New York, United States of America where she will participate in the 70th Session of the United Nations General Assembly and other high-level meetings which kicks off on September 25th 2015.

She arrived in New York after a successful working visit to Berlin, Germany where she addressed the G-7 Forum for Dialogue with Women Empowerment.

The UN 70th Session, which officially began on September 15th, 2015 is being held under the theme: "Human Rights, Peace and Security."

While in New York, the Liberian leader will preside over several important side-events and meet with a number of development partners at bilateral and multilateral levels in a quest to accelerate the country's recovery program as well as address the United Nations General Assembly.