

HIGHLIGHTS OF THE PRESIDENT'S DAILY ACTIVITIES – Tuesday, November 8, 2016

- President Ellen Johnson Sirleaf has urged the young people of Liberia, who constitutes about 60% of the nation's 4.5 million population, to be mindful of their role in helping to develop Liberia as a means of setting an example for others coming after them to emulate. The President spoke when she delivered the closing remarks on Tuesday, November 8, at program marking the close of a two-day "National Demography Dividend Stakeholders Roundtable Meeting.
- President Ellen Johnson Sirleaf received Kenyan Deputy President, William Ruto, and held bilateral talks on issues of mutual interest between Liberia and Kenya. Vice President Ruto arrived in Liberia on late Tuesday evening via Robert International Airport (RIA) and was met on arrival by Vice President Joseph Boakai. Ruto said his visit to Liberia is centered on three key areas that they want strengthen, including the bilateral relationship with Liberia itself.