

HIGHLIGHTS OF THE PRESIDENT'S DAILY ACTIVITIES – Thursday, October 13, 2016

- President Ellen Johnson Sirleaf on Thursday, October 13, led an array of senior government officials including the United States Ambassador to Liberia, Christian Ann Elder, to sign the book of condolence for late Internal Affairs Minister, Ambulai Johnson. Prior to his death, he served as Deputy Minister of Labor in 1980 and former lecturer at Cuttington College now Cuttington University in 1970. The late Johnson also lectured at the University of Liberia in 1980 and served as Minister of Internal Affairs from 2006-2009.
- President Ellen Johnson Sirleaf, on Thursday, October 13, officially launched the PricewaterhouseCoopers (PwC) Liberia, a multinational professional services firm describing it as a boost to accountancy in Liberia. "We need to work with you and will make sure it works", she said.