

HIGHLIGHTS OF THE PRESIDENT'S DAILY ACTIVITIES – Tuesday, May 10, 2016

- President Ellen Johnson Sirleaf on Tuesday, May 10, opened a Two-Day “Media Law and Regulatory Reform Stakeholders’ Conference in Monrovia. The two-day conference was organized at the behest of Internews (Liberia Media Development Program) in partnership with Albany Associates of the UK, the Press Union of Liberia (PUL) and Accountability Lab aimed at leading the media law and regulatory reform agenda of a democratically transitioning nation.
- A group of Mandingo citizens under the banner of the Mandingo Community of Liberia headed by Representative Sekou Kanneh of District # 2 Montserrado County has expressed profound appreciation and deep gratitude to President Ellen Johnson Sirleaf for her motherly kindness shown to former Minister of Finance and Development Planning, Amara M. Konneh. The Mandingo citizens made the statement on Tuesday, May 10, at President Sirleaf’s Foreign Ministry office when they paid a courtesy call on her.