

HIGHLIGHTS OF THE PRESIDENT'S DAILY ACTIVITIES – Saturday, October 24, 2015

- President Ellen Johnson Sirleaf today attended the joint graduation program of the 43rd Class of Liberia National Police and the 1st Class of the Drug Enforcement Agency (DEA) at the National Police Training Academy.

Making remarks, she stressed the need for officers of the LNP and communities to engage in order to improve police-community relations. She noted that with the LNP having about nine zones in and around Monrovia, she anticipates that the leadership of the LNP would deploy majority of the 413 graduates at various police zones and depots in and around Monrovia, stressing that the Government, through its city mayors, commissioners, superintendents and community leaders should see them on active duty.

She promised to visit the zones and depots to make sure that they are there and doing well and commended the leadership of the LNP and the DEA for the amount of females recruited to the two paramilitary institutions. The LNP recruited total of 92 women, while the DEA recruited 19 women, respectively that were part of the 413 graduates.
